The Best of The Gladiolus Crop For 1959, In My Garden

WHITE: I think we shall have to nominate PEGGY WHITE for top honors this season. It certainly was a top performer for me for the past 3 seasons. In the 300 size POLAR CAP, ESTRALEETA, were TOPS. Others included the brand new ARCTIC BEAUTY as well as the older SIERRA SNOW, not to forget old dependable FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE.

CREAM: FLORADORA still tops the list for me, followed by MARCO POLO (Simply huge and the tallest spike in the garden) with the 1960 AAGS introduction LANDMARK, which in my opinion is the finest gladiolus ever introduced in this or any other world. This glad has character, dependability, and top performance in any weather.

YELLOW: Still hard to beat SCEPTRE, GOLDEN BOY, GOLD BOND and FORSYTHIA. The new GOLDEN MIRACLE looks mighty good.

RED: In this category we shall include scarlets, for most people term them red anyway. From where I sit, RED RYDER still tops the list, followed closely by MOUNT ROYAL, SUN GLOW, REVELATION and ROYAL MOUNTED.

PINK: Tops for this season, was the very new Australian variety, MARJORIE NADEAN. This one is a masterpiece in color, character, style, and performance. CORONATION, PINK ELEGANCE, PINK HARMONY, LOR-ETTA, SALMON QUEEN, BOUDOIR are all grand pnks, all top performers, and all will gladden your heart.

ROSE: While on the light side, LORI DEE is still the top performer. CORAL ROSE, ROSELYN, ROSANNAH and old dependable BURMA are all worthy candidates.

LAVENDER: Still have not seen a better performer than ORCHID MIST. FASCINATION, CAMPANILE, and old dependable ELIZABETH THE QUEEN, are hard to beat.

ORANGE: The very new BITTERSWEET ORANGE tops the list to date. ORANGE FLAME is grand, as is also PRINCESS AURORA.

BUFFS: PEACH GLOW still heads the list, followed closely by ROMOLA, and PATROL.

BLACK RED: The new NIGHT EDITOR, is the best performing black red I have seen. While not as black as some others, it's performance is simply outstanding. ACE OF SPADES is fine, but not a commercial glad, CONGO is outstanding and in most of the shows.

PURPLES: WONDER BOY and DARK BRILLIANCE with PURPLE JET easily head the list. Other good performers are KING DAVID and THE RAJAH.

BLUES: BLUE PETER in dark blue, and BLUE BUTTERFLY are tops. BLUE DIAMOND, BLUE ANGEL, BLUE PEARL are all grand show glads. The new BLUE-GROTTO is our only extremely early blue glad, comes into flower in 60 days, in almost any weather and will be a topnotch commercial.

SMOKIES: STORMY WEATHER and BROWN LULLABY are tops in my book.

TO LIST A FEW OF THE OUTSTANDING MINI-ATURES, regardless of color:

ALECIA, ATOM, BONNIE PRINCE, BO-PEEP, FIGURINE, LITTLE GOLD, LITTLE PAL, NADIA, OCEAN SPRAY, STATUETTE, TWINKLES, WEDDING DAY, WHITE BUTTERFLY and YELLOW BIRD will all give excellent performances in the average garden.

Goslings Dragons

Doubles and Novelties

Here is a list of new introductions, from that Master Geneticist, Botanist and Student of the unusual in glad-iolus, Lucian Gosling, of Ludington, Mich. For the con-nisseur, who wants something new and entirely differ-ent, either for the garden, or for breeding purposes, there is nothing to compare with them. Flower arrangers from all over this part of the country, come here to get them for unusual arrangements.

RED SHOES

The first introduction in Mr. Gosling's "Ballet Glad Series." A miniature dragon, in a salmon red color, a 200 size, multispurred and lacinated florets, on a 20" spikes, carryinng 12 florets, which will open 6 easily. Ideal for collectors, or for corsages, in the most unusual glad ever introduced. Stock is small, and it will be sold on a "First come, First served basis."

BLUE DRAGON

A tall, light blue Dragon, whose petals are finely lacinated and edged with spurs to enhance a perfect symmetry. It will open seven lovely pale violet florets of its sixteen buds, but those thorny buds above are as lovely as the opened florets. I am more than proud of this stately beauty.

Any Size Corm $2.00

GOLDEN WEDDING

A delightful pale yellow in the Wedding Day effect. Its short spike is filled with dainty folded and crinkled florets, with tiny spurs on the reverse side of the buds to give them accent. Though the florets are large, the petal-age is so delicate and dainty it could pass for an orchid anywhere. This one is truly a dream of beauty, and should be invaluable to florists.

STARLIGHT

A bright, light red dragon with white spurs on the buds. The inner face of opened florets shows all red, but those unopened buds are all abristle with those white spurs, like the Evening Star when the sinking sun sets it afire in the western sky. This is truly a curious and exquisite novelty.

Any Size Corm $3.00

DOUBLE CREAM

This is in shape and growth much like that first double of Koerner's, Multipetal, but it is a lovely creamy white, flecked lightly on the petal tips with lavender. Most of its ten florets will open at once, and that creamy color is more useful than Multipetal's yellow. Those double florets, full as a carnation, will entrance you.

Any Size Corm $1.00

ELIZABETH THE ORCHID

This is that old favorite, Elizabeth the Queen, in exquisite flaring florets in the orchid effect of Grey Dragon. Though only five of its twelve buds will open at once, those bristling lavender buds above will enchant you. Try this one on your florist.

Any Size Corm $1.00

DOUBLE GOLD

This semidouble has golden yellow petals streaked with orange, in perfect placement with six buds open and the rest in color. If you want to give your glad garden a truly vivid accent, plant some Double Gold among them. Its striking color and shape really makes it stand out.

Any Size Corm $1.00

ROSY DREAMS

The shade and shape of Rose Orchid, but on a tall and stately spike that will open eight of eighteen buds at once. This is one of the taller of the Dragons, usually rearing its lovely head above all the others. This should be a real thrill to those glad fans who love the rosy shades.

GIZ SHAW

The Sensational Grower!

GIZ SHAW is a bright orange blending to a yellow throat upon which are a few pepper spots. Florets are round, slightly ruffled and fluted, and wide open. This spike, grown by Rus Hecht, Belle Plaine, Ia., measured 6 feet 11 inches tall. Several others growing GIZ SHAW for the first time reported 6 foot spikes. It propagates good. Makes tremendous bulbs, some 5 to 6 inches in diameter, which seldom split. Excellent stem and lush green foliage.
